

Business briefs

Published September 25, 2007

Awards

Evergreen grad, founder of business honored

OLYMPIA — A graduate from The Evergreen State College has been honored by ACT Theatre, the YWCA of Seattle-King County and Snohomish County, The Seattle Times and the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Lisa Quast is one of 11 women chosen for the "Women to Celebrate" award. An Evergreen graduate, she is the founder of Career Woman Inc., and the author of a new career guide for women. The award was given to coincide with ACT Theatre's new production of "The Women," by Clare Boothe Luce, which opens Oct. 5 at ACT in Seattle.

Quast, who recently published her first book, "Your Career, Your Way: Personal Strategies to Achieve Your Career Aspirations," works as an advocate for women in the workplace and serves as a career coach and mentor.